

Seminar on Sustainability Science Promoting Graduate Program in Sustainability Science Global Leadership Initiative (GPSS-GLI)

July 6, 2014
Elite World Istanbul Hotel

"Sustainability" is a keyword, concept, and lifestyle which may reorient the course of our planet's future. At the forefront of sustainability research, The University of Tokyo launched a new program named Graduate Program in Sustainability Science -Global Leadership Initiative (GPSS-GLI) in October 2012. Under the GPSS-GLI program, students can obtain master or Ph.D. degree of Sustainability Science by taking academic programs conducted in English. This seminar introduces the GPSS-GLI through a series of oral and video presentations, as well as a faculty-led seminar followed by a question and answer session with the audience.
